A Touch of Woza Moya Magic at the Durban July 2025!

Woza Moya was thrilled to be part of the Durban July magic this year! Everyone was hands on deck, from crafters to interns, we created beautiful handmade lampshades to light up a VIP area, brought vibrant colour to the venue with a playful yarn bombing of three trees, and added a touch of fun with bold fabric flowers featuring favourite South African brands. These were made part of a striking, bright-coloured horse that became a popular photo spot at the event.

Artists of the month: Ayanda and Ngobile take the Wall

Woza Moya Artists Wall thanks the 100% Foundation for their generous ongoing sponsorship. October 2025 features renowned artist Marjorie Jones, with Artists of the Month Ngobile Mbhele and Ayanda Ngcobo. Mbhele, a Durban-based multidisciplinary artist and DUT alumna, explores identity through vibrant colour and texture, with international exposure and multiple Turbine Art Fair exhibitions. Ngcobo, a commercial photographer and DUT graduate, blends urban energy with emotional storytelling, recently shifting focus to childhood memories in his latest series.

Celebrate Women's Month in Style.

With Women's month just around the corner, it's the perfect time to check out our newest range of floral, feminine necklaces and earrings. Thoughtfully handcrafted, these beautiful pieces make meaningful gifts, or a lovely way to celebrate yourself.

Reclaiming The Voice Within

Woza Moya hosted a powerful 6-week Voice Movement Therapy session with Gina Holloway Mulder, a space for deep expression, reflection, and release. It was about using the voice and body to speak what's often hard to say. Many who joined left feeling lighter, more connected, and deeply moved.

We've shared more about Voice Movement Therapy, the sessions and their impact on the blog that's available on our website called "Reclaiming The Voice Within"
