Marjorie Jones" Exhibition Opening

We were thrilled to welcome so many art lovers to the opening of Marjorie Jones' Exhibition, "A Language Without Words,". It was an inspiring afternoon filled with conversation, creativity, and community.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who came to support Marjorie - your presence made the event truly special. We are also deeply grateful to Marjorie and her family for sharing their incredible work with us and allowing us the honour of exhibiting it.

If you missed the opening, the exhibition is still on display, at the Woza Moya African Upstairs African Gallery - till Mid-November.

Pink October with the Hillcrest AIDS Centre Trust

This October, the Hillcrest AIDS Centre Trust joined the global movement for Breast Cancer Awareness Month, and of course Woza Moya was a part of it.

On the 4th of October, our staff dressed up in pink to show our support, and throughout the month we had a special display of pink handmade items in the shop.

As part of the campaign, customers who made a R50 donation to the HACT 24-bed Hospice received 10% off their purchases at Woza Moya - a small way to give back and spread awareness for an important cause.

Thank you to everyone who joined in and helped make Pink October a month of hope, compassion, and community.

Woza Moya x Oceans mall

We're thrilled to be partnering with Oceans Mall once again this festive season! Last year, we had the incredible opportunity to create three giant beaded Christmas baubles and a cheerful snowman for Oceans Mall - a project that brought work to 43 crafters and became one of the most ambitious creations we've ever undertaken. From sourcing the massive polystyrene bases to threading over 9,000 beads by hand, it was a labour of love that filled the Platinum Walk with sparkle and joy.

This year our collaboration continues with a brand-new creation - a shimmering piece that promises to be just as magical. Follow our Social Media pages for a first look as the magic unfolds!
